As the state’s only fully accredited tribal college, BMCC serves the now twelve federally recognized tribes of the state. Although the college specializes in programs for American Indians, who represent approximately 60% of the annual student enrollment, its doors are open to all people who want to benefit from the educational process. BMCC is dedicated to providing academic and personal enrichment programs to Native Americans and residents of their neighboring communities.

Mission: To unite and empower Native American Communities in Michigan with the common goal of ending Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault.
UPCAP Care Management is a program designed to assist Upper Peninsula residents who are candidates for nursing home care or are currently in a nursing home. UPCAP Care Management is aimed specifically at helping people understand their choices when thinking about nursing home care and, whenever possible, Care Management will suggest a package of services that may allow the loved one to remain in the home. Care Management uses Teams of Registered Nurses and Social Workers to assess the needs of persons who qualify for services. The program provides:

- Long Term Care Options
- Comprehensive Assessment
- Client Choice Advocacy
- Care Planning
- Service Arranging/Coordination
- Long Term Monitoring/Re-evaluation

The U.P. Area Agency on Aging operates an extensive Upper Peninsula-wide, toll free telephone information and referral service to help families and friends find information about available community services for older people. The HELP LINE serves as a resource to connect individuals to agencies and organizations that provide a variety of services.

The U.P. 2-1-1 Call Center maintains a comprehensive database of resources, including federal, state and local government agencies, and private non-profit organizations. Whether someone is looking for a volunteer opportunity or needs assistance finding food or shelter, 2-1-1 can help locate services for those in need. The caller will be promptly connected to a trained Information and Referral Specialist who can discuss the caller’s needs and provide the appropriate information to address those needs.
